Approved For Release 2003/100 : 04-R 1180B01676R002300060035-5

DAILY STAFF MEETING  Stated that the DCI had received a letter from like Cowles, enclosing a letter from Paul Hoffman which recomended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out "strong" propaganda program. Mr. stated further that he DCI thought it might be profitable for CIA to brief the heads f LIFE, TIME, NEWSWEEK and the three press services on some of ur activities in this field. This briefing should be off the ecord and those present pledged to secrecy. Col. Hansen will repare a suggested outline as to what should be covered. In this connection, Hansen noted that in a recent conversation that connection, Hansen noted that in a recent conversation that they should be impressed with the sensitivity of the subject to be discussed.	25
Mr. stated that the DCI had received a letter from like Cowles, enclosing a letter from Paul Hoffman which recommended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out "strong" propaganda program. Mr. stated further that he DCI thought it might be profitable for CIA to brief the heads f LIFE, TIME, NEWSWEEK and the three press services on some of ur activities in this field. This briefing should be off the ecord and those present pledged to secrecy. Col. Hansen will repare a suggested outline as to what should be covered. In this connection, Hansen noted that in a recent conversation that the content of the riefing for these people should be a matter of selection and resentation and that they should be impressed with the sensi-	25
ike Cowles, enclosing a letter from Paul Hoffman which recom- lended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out lended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out lended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out lended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out lended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out lended that in given stated further that lended that in given considered the heads f LIFE, TIME, NEWSWEEK and the three press services on some of lended that in this field. This briefing should be off the lectord and those present pledged to secrecy. Col. Hansen will repare a suggested outline as to what should be covered. In lended that the content of the lended that the content of the riefing for these people should be a matter of selection and resentation and that they should be impressed with the sensi-
ike Cowles, enclosing a letter from Paul Hoffman which recom- lended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out lended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out lended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out lended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out lended that General Smith be given sufficient funds to carry out lended that in given stated further that lended that in given considered the heads f LIFE, TIME, NEWSWEEK and the three press services on some of lended that in this field. This briefing should be off the lectord and those present pledged to secrecy. Col. Hansen will repare a suggested outline as to what should be covered. In lended that the content of the lended that the content of the riefing for these people should be a matter of selection and resentation and that they should be impressed with the sensi-
"strong" propaganda program. Mr. stated further that he DCI thought it might be profitable for CIA to brief the heads f LIFE, TIME, NEWSWEEK and the three press services on some of ur activities in this field. This briefing should be off the ecord and those present pledged to secrecy. Col. Hansen will repare a suggested outline as to what should be covered. In his connection, Hansen noted that in a recent conversation that connection, Hansen noted that in a recent conversation resentation and that they should be impressed with the sensi-
that the content of the riefing for these people should be a matter of selection and resentation and that they should be impressed with the sensi-
that the content of the riefing for these people should be a matter of selection and resentation and that they should be impressed with the sensi-
riefing for these people should be a matter of selection and resentation and that they should be impressed with the sensiriefing for these people should be a matter of selection and resentation and that they should be impressed with the sensi-
riefing for these people should be a matter of selection and resentation and that they should be impressed with the sensi-
riefing for these people should be a matter of selection and resentation and that they should be impressed with the sensi-
resentation and that they should be impressed with the sensiread of one subject to be discussed.
Mr. Reber:
(a) briefly discussed the agenda for tomorrow's IAC meeting:
	٦
	•
(c) further noted that we are attending meetings being held discuss intelligence support for psychological warfare.
Mr. stated that he had visited lest Friday d found the installation to be in excellent shape and, in his inion, was ready for emergency use at any time.
	discuss intelligence support for psychological warfare.